OBJECT OF THE RED CROSS DRIVE

Campaign, Which Begins Today, is to Raise Money For Use at Home to Combat Disease, Alleviate Suffering.

In view of the coming membership drive for the Red Cross, the committee feels that it would be well to offer some explanations. Many people wonder why, since the war is over, that the Red Cross activities should continue—why there should be another Roll Call.

Probably we have not known what the Red Cross Peace Program is. Post war conditions in Europe still call for help, while a new phase of activity has been developed to meet the needs of our country, many of these needs having been revealed by the war, and the public conscience having been awakened by the suffering incident to such a war.

The health work has been organized in the United States by the American Red Cross and put into operation in rural districts mainly since the health of city children, including those living in slums, is better than that of country children. This condition is due to the advantage of the city child over the country child in medical supervision and instruction. Do we not want our children to have these advantages that are fundamental? Do we not want to build a citizenship as intelligent, as virile as any—fit enough to survive?

Half of a fund raised by any Red Cross Chapter is sent into headquarters, while the other half is kept for local needs.

Tazewell county has reason to be proud of its peace program. We have a thoroughly capable nurse, Miss Lambert, who has had wide experience in welfare work. The Red Cross furnishes her a car, rents two rooms in the Greener building, one used as Miss Lambert's office, and the other as a rest room, equipped and run by the W. C. T. U. for the accommodation of country people who are in town.

The Red Cross cooperates with the W. C. T. U. in furnishing the Tazewell Loan Closet. In other districts of the county Red Cross workers are equipping loan closets to be used in their own communities in sickness. Shawners Mills is specially to be congratulated. At a box supper recently they raised $26.00 toward their equipment. Our chapter has furnished materials left from war work to the church societies to make into garments for foreign relief.

Through the Public Health work, by means of school inspection, home visiting, dental, baby welfare and tuberculosis clinics, we hope to improve the health of the children throughout the county and to eliminate much of tuberculosis and other contagious diseases.

This is an ambitious program, but can we do less?

SALLIE HARRISON,
Chairman Publicity Committee.

JAMES M. BEAVERS DEAD.

James M. Beavers, a prominent and well known business man, who was born and raised in Tazewell county, died November 5th and was buried at Tazewell Sunday afternoon, November 7th. Rev. George Lambert, assisted by Rev. C. R. Brown, conducted the funeral services at the Christian church and interment was made in Maplewood cemetery under the auspices of Tazewell Lodge No. 62, A. F. & A. M., of which lodge the deceased had been a member for about thirty years. He was a Royal Arch Mason, Knight Templar and a Shriner. He was a son of M. Jackson Beavers and Lucy Hankins Beavers, his mother being the eldest daughter of James Hankins, of Baptist Valley. He married Miss Nellie Ascue, daughter of the late Henry Ascue and is survived by his wife and one daughter, Catherine. He is 87 years old, and by the following brothers and sisters: Mrs. Ella Wall, of Washington, D. C.; Alex. R. Beavers, Jr. Newton Beavers, Mrs. Geo. W. Jones, Mrs. Greener Deskins, Mrs. Crockett Harrison and Mrs. Thomas Beavers, of Tazewell county.

For several years Mr. Beavers was a traveling salesman and merchant, and later became interested in coal and mineral properties in this section, and has been an active and a progressive business man. For the past few years he has resided at Roanoke, Va., and Washington, D. C. Jim was noted for his genial disposition and made friends wherever he went, and he will be sadly missed by his relatives and host of friends throughout Southwest Virginia. He was a man of high moral character and business integrity and a consistent member of the Christian church. At the time of his death he was 53 years old.

SOLDIER OF WORLD WAR BURIED IN GRAHAM.

The body of Corporal Philip Wiley, who was killed accidentally in France during the world war, reached Graham last Sunday night, where funeral services were held in the Methodist church. A large crowd attended. The funeral took place Monday in Graham and was in charge of the Order of Red Men, of which the dead soldier was a member. Among the persons present at the burial was Mrs. Lester Johnson, the former wife of the soldier, who recently married. It is said that many other bodies of Tazewell men killed in France will reach the United States in the near future and will be sent to their homes for interment. The bodies are being accompanied by soldiers of the regular army.

OFFICER SAID TO HAVE ADVISED KILLING.

In an election day row at Bland Court House Riley Nunn, a well known citizen of that town shot and almost instantly killed John Chandler, also of that town. It appears that the Nunn and Chandler children had had frequent rows and that the men were brought to blows on that account.

Nunn had consulted the county attorney, it is said, and the officer advised that there was nothing left to do but kill Chandler. The two men met on election day, near the court house. Chandler is said to have attempted an assault on Nunn. The latter backed away from him some distance attempting to avoid a personal encounter. When he had gone as far as he thought he should he drew his pistol and shot Chandler three times. We are informed that the shooting was so plainly a case of self defense and justifiable that Nunn was not even arrested.

A DEMOCRAT STILL.

Shawners Mill, Va., Nov. 8. Dear Mr. Editor: There seems to be quite an interest taken in my "expression" of views on politics. May I have a little space to present them? I am a Democrat born and a Democrat alive and when I go, there'll be a Democrat dead. Although I am one never have I "run down" my political enemies. It simply is not in the McKinley blood and every one knows the Buchanans. Very truly yours,
MABEL BUCHANAN.

MOTHERS DAY AT THE REST ROOM.

An informal reception will be given to the mothers and babies in the rest room, Saturday, 13th, at three o'clock. Miss Lambert will give a health talk of interest to the mothers. There will be a short program of music, and a social time in which to meet all the mothers and babies.

Mrs. Ocie Witt, wife of Hugh Witt, died very suddenly at her home yesterday morning. She was found dead in the kitchen where she was preparing breakfast, and had been dead for some time when found. She leaves a husband and a number of children. She was a daughter of the late Jas. W. Smith, a former representative in the legislature from this county, and was twice married, her first husband being Jim Brown, a son of the late Patton Brown, of Richlands. Interment will be made near her old home.

RIGHTO, MR. PEERY.

Mr. H. E. Peery, of Amarillo, Tex., sends us a check from Roanoke, and says: "I was at North Tazewell Tuesday, but on account of the rain and Republican landslide thought I had better leave Tazewell at once, and return west." The letter from Roanoke is written on stationery of S. Bachrach and Co., loan brokers. "Uncles" is a pretty good place to fall back on when it goes against you.

HARDING LANDS ANOTHER FISH

President-Elect Catches Tarpon Measuring Four Feet and Five Inches Long, While Gov. Cox Plans Trip Abroad.

Point Isabel, Tex., Nov. 10.—President-elect Harding landed his first tarpon today and came back from the Point Isabel fishing grounds as proud as he did when just a week ago tonight, election figures confirmed his overwhelming majority for the presidency.

The catch measured four feet and five inches, a fair sized catch as tarpons go, and Mr. Harding handled the reel unassisted while the big fish raced back and forth through the water in its furious attempt to get away. It was pulled in just fifteen minutes after it took the bait. Mrs. Harding shared the honors of the day for she also hooked a tarpon. It was almost a six-footer, however, and she did not try to land it. She passed the reel over to Senator Hale, a guest of the President-elect and his wife on their vacation trip here and he brought it in after a struggle of more than half an hour. Senator Harding again spent the whole day on the tarpon fields three miles off shore, passing up an ideal golf day to devote himself to the sport which he was introduced to yesterday.

While Senator Harding is catching the big fish Governor Cox is planning a trip abroad to recuperate from the strenuous campaign through which he recently passed.

CHRISTMAS SEALS.

Richmond, Va., Nov. 11.—Enough tuberculosis Christmas seals have been printed and distributed by the National Tuberculosis Association to reach more than half way around the world. Nine hundred million seals have been distributed to the forty-eight state tuberculosis associations and more than eleven hundred local anti-tuberculosis associations in the United States. If placed in a row, these seals would measure fifteen thousand miles.

The sale of tuberculosis Christmas seals will extend from November 25th to December 31st. The seals are sold for the support of the National, state and local anti-tuberculosis work in the country for the financing of public health nurses, the establishment of dispensaries and for the prevention and cure of the disease.

Virginia's quota of seals is 10,000. The Virginia Tuberculosis Association's work is financed entirely by the sale of Christmas Seals and earnest men and women all over the State have gladly undertaken the task of selling them in the interest of a healthier and happier Virginia.

REDUCTION IN PRICES.

Judging from the advertisement in this issue of the News, The Big Store is progressive and alike other progressive merchants, have decided to reduce their stock and they also know an advertisement in the Clinch Valley News is the way to get the matter before the public. It is a bonafide reduction and means a saving of one-fifth from their regular price. This brings reliable goods within the reach of all and it will be to your interest to drop in and look them over.

JACK FOR SALE OR EXCHANGE.

I have a 5-year old Jack which I will exchange for a good horse or a mule. He cost $400 last year, and I will guarantee him to serve and breed.

MRS. ALICE NIEDAUMAER.

Mrs. Alice Niedaumaer, aged about 62 years, died at her home at Gratton Sunday morning, after an illness of several months. The funeral and burial took place Monday afternoon, the funeral services being held in the Mt. Olivet and the interment in the cemetery nearby.

Mrs. Niedaumaer was the mother of six children, all of whom survive, namely, Mrs. Addie Parks, of New York; Mrs. Frieda Yonkoff, of Pennsylvania; Mrs. Marie Byrd, of Gratton; Theodore and Robert Niedaumaer, of Cleveland, Ohio.

A large crowd was present at the funeral and burial, attesting the high esteem in which the deceased woman was held at Gratton and the community.

WE SOON FORGET.

North Tazewell, Va., Nov. 11. I do not hesitate to say that there isn't a town in the State the size of these two towns that displayed such pre-war fervor and apparent patriotism that have forgotten so soon the fellows that went out that they might remain at home in comfort, some of whom sleep the sleep that knows no awakening; others that never will know what it means to be well again.

On Nov. 25th, there will be a day of Thanksgiving proclaimed by the President which is well enough, but it will seem to the soldier and ought to the civilian as well that to-day of all days men should lay aside their cares and humbly thank God, for the great good that this day brought forth, nothing short of the glad cry that rang over the Judean hill on that night long ago proclaiming that there was born to us a savior has brought such glad tidings as did Nov. 11th, 1918.

Personally I commend the action of Mr. J. B. Boyer and C. T. Peery, and I think each soldier and sailor should. It goes a long way to show his appreciation for the memory of those whom he pleases to honor, and that he places this appreciation above a little financial gain.

I hope that the time will come when those that made us such beautiful promises when we went away will wake up to the realization of the fact that we are back home, and give us a word of kindness now and then. When I say this I think that I speak for the boys of Tazewell.
